

EMSA E-CARD (electronic I.D. card)

EMSA E-CARD (Electronical Card) is the new version of the EMSA ID Card (old printed card).

All EMSA players and Team Officials (checked off on the table below) must have an EMSA E-Card which will be produced by EMSA MAIN (see instructions below).

EMSA MAIN will no longer print cards but all the cards will show on the EMSA PORTAL.

IMPORTANT: Request EMSA E-Cards date is from March 1 to April 21, 2023. Any requests received after these dates may not be processed in time for the season start.

Where to find your EMSA E-CARD information?

All Players (or parents) and Team officials are able to verify their card has been created by going to their personal account in the EMSA PORTAL: log in to www.emsamain.com – click on “Manage People on Account”. YOU WILL BE ABLE TO SEE ONLY THE EXPIRY DATE of the card (not the photo). If you have an expiry date it means you have a card on file. If you don't have a EMSA E-CARD on file, the system will show “NO CARD AVAILABLE”.

Who needs to request an EMSA E-CARD?

- a) If your existing EMSA ID CARD has expired: as mentioned above each E-CARD has an expiry date; please check that in order to renew the card and then follow the procedure below. (If not expiring during the Outdoor Season (May – Aug 2023) you will not need to renew).
- b) If you are a new Player or Team official of EMSA you have to request an EMSA E –CARD following the steps below.

How to renew or to request a new EMSA E-Card? (PROCEDURE)

1. In order to request /renew the EMSA e –card you must first be registered for the current season and have an account created in the EMSA soccer portal.
2. Take a photo/Selfie of the Player, Team Officials, with NO hats, sunglasses, hands in their faces, as well as they must have some type of clothing on like a t-shirt covering their shoulders. Send it as an attachment in JPEG or PDF format, DO NOT send photos in a special file, or too small, to narrow or to stretched out as we do not accept them.
3. Take a photo or scan one piece of Government issued ID for Players which can either be, their Alberta Health Care Card, Birth Certificate, Passport, or Driver's License.
